Press Release

For Immediate Release
Date of Release: Monday, March 22, 2010

The New Paltz Police Department announces the arrest of;

Julie A. King, age 52
6 Cameron Lane
Wappingers Falls, NY 12590

King was arrested by the New Paltz Police Department on March 21, 2010 and charged with;

- Falsely reporting an incident in the 3rd degree, a class A misdemeanor

King was arrested after admitting to police that she had falsely reported that her 20 year old daughter was being against her will at gunpoint by her 25 year old boyfriend in a private residence on Rt. 208 on February 22, 2010.

The February 22nd call resulted in a heavy police response with members of the New Paltz Police Department, the Ulster County Sheriff's Department, the SUNY College at New Paltz Police Department and the New York State Police responding and taking up positions around the residence.

Once it was determined that all occupants of the residence were safe and accounted for, an investigation began into the incident. It was determined that a family disagreement was one of the underlying factors that prompted her call to police.

King was released on an appearance ticket and is scheduled to return to New Paltz Court on April 6, 2010.
