Press Release

For Immediate Release

Date of Release: Tuesday, March 15, 2011

The New Paltz Police Department conducted a multi-agency investigation designed to address complaints of underage drinking at Mahoney's West Bar located at 127 Main Street in the Village of New Paltz on Monday March 14, 2011. The participating agencies were the New Paltz Police, and Investigators with the New York State Liquor Authority.

There had been several complaints that alleged Mahoney's West was in violation of their liquor license. The investigation showed that there were multiple subjects under the age of 21 who were being served alcohol. It was also determined that there other violations committed under the New York State Liquor Authority Law. The investigation with the New York State Liquor Authority is continuing.
