Date of Release: Thursday, May 19, 2011

The New Paltz Police Department reports the arrest of;

*Antolin Frias, age 30
218 Tremper Avenue
Kingston, NY*

Frias was arrested on May 18, 2011 at approximately 4:00 p.m. and charged with;

- Grand Larceny in the 3rd Degree, a class D Felony

On April 22, 2011 New Paltz Police received a report of a larceny of electronic equipment from a private home in the Village of New Paltz. Further investigation revealed that Frias met several SUNY New Paltz college students in a local bar on the 22nd of April and was allowed to sleep on their couch in their Main Street residence. When the residents awoke in the morning, they discovered Frias and several pieces of electronic equipment gone.

With only a cell phone picture taken of Frias by one of students and no name at the time, New Paltz detectives began their investigation to identify and locate him. With the assistance of the New York State Police and The City of Kingston Police, Frias was recognized by an alert City of Kingston Police Officer while in traffic court in the City of Kingston and detained for New Paltz Police.

Frias was returned to the New Paltz Police Department and subsequently charged. He was arraigned by New Paltz Town Justice Jonathan Katz and released on $350.00 bail to return on May 25, 2011.
